Petersburg, Va., May 17.
The Lincoln Memorial Hall of the Temperance, Industrial and College Institute at the John Hay Wharf at Clarendon will be dedicated with elaborate ceremonies, beginning on Sunday morning and continuing through Monday and Tuesday. The exercises will begin with the consecration service Sunday morning, to be led by President John J. Smallwood. The dedicatory ceremony will be held on Monday morning at 10 o'clock. The Rev. Charles S. Morris, of Norfolk, and the dedicatory sermon by the Rev. F. M. Estes, of Boston. John Mitchell, Jr., of Richmond, will deliver an address.

Professor J. Imboden, of North
Carolina, will make the annual temperance address Sunday night.
On Monday afternoon Governor Mann will speak, and Governor Deeney, of Illinois, is expected to deliver an address. Tuesday the day-day exercises of the graduates will be held. New Scenery Street Store.
Louis A. Richards has purchased the only remaining vacant lot in the burned district on Spycamore Street, lying between the Rosenstock & Co.'s store and the Virginia National Bank, and proposes to erect thereon a three-story stone and brick structure, with three stories on the street floor. It is understood that the price paid for the lot was about $30,000, or $600 per front foot. A year ago at public sale the lot brought $25,000, or $500 per foot. The new store will fill up the block and will be a character in keeping with the adjacent handsome structures.

Installation of Pastor.
The Rev. J. A. McClure, late of Henderson, N. C., will be installed as pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in this city on Sunday. The Rev. J. F. Fox, of South Richmond, will preach the installation sermon; the Rev. C. R. Strickling, of Petersburg, will deliver the charge to the people.

Two Cleaning-Up Days.
